You also authorise the medical centre to utilise any excess funds, after full settlement of the current Services, to offset any outstanding amounts for prior Services rendered for which you are liable.
- 2.3 Please note that our indicative prices may be revised and updated from time to time. In respect of Services where the cost may vary according to the specific type of Service, we can give you a cost estimate. Whilst we will use our best endeavours to provide an accurate estimate, such estimate is not binding and is subject to change. The price stipulated in the invoice will prevail.
